MEIER SUPPLY'S VERY OWN ED BRINK WINS THE NATION'S BEST TRAINER AWARD

Passion defines The NEWS' 2017 Best Trainer Contest Winner

Conklin, NY October 4, 2017: Ed Brink, division manager and technical trainer at Meier Supply Co. was recently honored as the nation's Best Trainer. Described as a true workhorse, Ed was named the top teacher and advisor across the HVAC industry. As the technical trainer for Meier Supply Co., Ed has the opportunity to set up mobile training modules, primary in the Northeast, where he gives detailed training demonstrations and presentations.

"He builds functioning hands-on training modules and interactive electronic presentations, operates a training trailer for live fire on-site training, and he's factory authorized for several products," said Daniel Fitzpatrick, HVAC division manager, Meier Supply Co. "Ed has developed Meier University's curriculum for a wide range of highly effective training"

Ed's love for the HVACR industry began when he was just a teenager. An industry veteran took an interest in him and taught him the trade. It made a lasting impression on him, helped make him the person he is today, and became the foundation for his career. "As a teacher, it's my hope to pass on my information and give back to others."

Our congratulations to Ed on this major accomplishment. We wish him continued success as he leads the technical division of Meier Supply Co. into the future.
